

TOBB
University of Economics and Technology
Department of International Relations

tepav | ipri

COMPETING ENERGY POLICIES OF MAJOR POWERS
WORLD ENERGY FUTURE
Round-table Meeting

TOBB - ETÜ (TOBB University of Economics and Technology)

(Söğütözü Cad.No:43 Söğütözü-ANKARA)

4th Floor Senate Room

27 April 2007, Friday

2.00 pm - 6.00 pm

Opening Remarks

Dennis SAMMUT, Executive Director

London Information Network on Conflict and State-Building (LINKS)

Moderator:

Mustafa AYDIN, TOBB-ETÜ, Head of International Relations Department

Director of International Policy Research Institute (TEPAV|IPRI)

Key-note Speakers:

Brenda SHAFFER, Research Director Caspian Studies Project Harvard University

Necdet PAMİR, General Coordinator, Center for Eurasian Strategic Studies (ASAM)

Dimitri ZYKOV, Counselor, Russian Embassy in Turkey

Topics to be addressed:

- The Question of Russia as a Reliable Supplier
 - Does Russia use oil and gas as a weapon?
- Turkey's Role encompassed by Global Energy Strategies (U.S. & EU & Russia & China...etc)
- Russia's Energy Policies in the Black Sea and Caspian Region
- Future of World's Energy and Policies of Great Powers