TEPAV will be hosting the round-table meeting on the current ambivalent reception of the year 1989 - both the most dynamic epoch-making year in the history of Europe since the end of World War Two, and a controversial and largely 'cold' memory side- with the participation of Mr. Oliver Rathkolb, the head of the Department of Contemporary History at the University of Vienna. Mr. Rathkolb will talk about "Europe and the end of the Cold War 1989".
